1 Krista Freitag (“Receiver”), the Court-appointed permanent receiver for 2 Defendant ANI Development, LLC, Relief Defendant American National 3 Investments, Inc., and their subsidiaries and affiliates (“Receivership Entities”), 4 hereby submits her Nineteenth Interim Report and Recommendations (“Nineteenth 5 Report”).

6 I. BACKGROUND

7 This equity receivership involves a large, complex, and wide-ranging group 8 of enterprises and assets which are the subject of the Complaint filed by the 9 Securities and Exchange Commission. This quarterly report covers the Receiver’s 10 activities during the first quarter of 2024 and reflects the status of certain activities 11 as of the date of this report, if material action has occurred between March 31, 2024, 12 and the date of this report.

13 II. EXECUTIVE SUMMARY

14 As previously reported, the receivership estate assets were primarily 15 comprised of cash, 33 commercial and residential properties, 27 restaurant and retail 16 operations, not including commissary kitchen operations (both owned and leased 17 properties), voluminous personal property (including restaurant equipment, product 18 inventory, retail merchandise, liquor licenses and intellectual property associated 19 with the operations of the enterprise), various notes receivable or equity investments 20 made by the Receivership Entities, and potential causes of action. During the first 21 quarter of 2024, the Receiver continued to make steady progress in marshalling the 22 Receivership Entities’ remaining assets, moving towards resolution of on-going 23 litigation matters and otherwise discharging her duties.

24 As of the date of this report, all owned real property and nearly all personal 25 property assets have been monetized or otherwise resolved. The remaining assets 26 consist of a few items of personal property/office equipment and some investments 27 summarized as “Other Investments/Loans” in the attached Exhibit A asset chart.
28

1 The remaining recovery from these assets remains in flux; however, further recovery 2 is not expected to materially increase the total receivership estate funds.

3 Since her appointment, the Receiver closed sales of real properties and 4 leasehold interests (including associated liquor licenses) with an aggregate gross 5 sale price of over $40 million, while paying off nearly $24 million in secured debt 6 through escrow, resolving those secured claims against the receivership estate. The 7 remaining work consists of the sale/disposition of a few remaining investment 8 assets, awaiting resolution of the two (2) remaining clawback claims, and 9 completing the Court-approved distribution process.

10 III. SUMMARY OF RECEIVER'S ACTIVITIES

11 A. Fourth Quarter 2023 Funds Recovered

12 A few recovery highlights during the first quarter of 2024 include:

- 13 • $23,000 in installment payments from existing settlements;¹
- 14 • $63,304 of interest income resulting from the receivership estate's 15 participation in an insured cash sweep program, which not only earns 16 interest, but also fully protects the funds in FDIC-insured accounts.

17 Additional recovery and expense detail through the first quarter of 2024 is 18 included on the receipts and disbursements schedule attached hereto as Exhibit B.

19 B. Status of Real and Personal Property Assets

20 Throughout this case, the Receiver took significant steps to implement the 21 Appointment Order, including previously managing all assets controlled, operated, 22 leased, or owned by the Receivership Entities. Exhibit A is a schedule of all known 23 real property, businesses/operations, third-party investments/loans, and liquor 24 license assets of the Receivership Entities and their disposition.

25 The Receiver recovered over $16 million from the assets reflected on 26 Exhibit A. In addition, the Bandini Street Property, which was owned by Defendant 27

28 ¹ As of the date of this report, approximately $9.4 million of payments, representing approximately 88 clawback settlements, have been received.

1 Champion-Cain and her husband Steven Cain, was refinanced with Court approval, 2 resulting in a $1.3 million recovery for the receivership estate. The Receiver 3 continues to work on recovery for the assets listed as “Other Investments/Loans” on 4 Exhibit A.

5 It is important to note that the $16 million recovered does not and has never 6 included any amounts associated with potential recoveries from clawback claims, 7 causes of action or third-party recoveries not reflected specifically on Exhibit A.
8 Those efforts are discussed in further detail below. Exhibit A is also reflective of 9 actual net sales proceeds and does not reflect revenue or expenses associated with 10 the listed assets leading up to the sale thereof.

11 C. Property Taxes

12 As the final real property in the receivership was sold, no further property tax 13 obligations are expected.

14 D. Insurance

15 No property and general liability policies remain. The Receiver received a 16 final refund from the prior insurance broker in April 2023 for unused premium on a 17 previous policy. Since there are no remaining employees, the insurance policies 18 linked to them, such as health insurance and worker’s compensation, have been 19 cancelled. A one-year tail on the EPLI claims made policy was purchased and 20 expired without any additional claims. The worker’s compensation insurance final 21 audit was completed, resulting in a refund in late 2021.

22 Previously, the Receiver received a demand from an attorney representing an 23 individual who was alleged to be involved in an incident which occurred pre-24 receivership in a Patio Marketplace restaurant in Irvine, CA. The Receiver’s special 25 conflicts counsel responded to the demand and the details of the claim were 26 forwarded to the appropriate insurance carrier in place at the time of the alleged 27 incident (early 2019).

28

1 E. Debt Service

2 No further debt service payments have been made or are expected as all real 3 property in the receivership has been sold.

4 F. Loans and Other Investments

5 Through her investigation, meetings, and document review, the Receiver 6 identified numerous loans and investments made by Champion-Cain and the 7 Receivership Entities, as well as associated business interests and assets. Based 8 upon interviews with Champion-Cain and records reviewed by the Receiver, it 9 appears that millions of dollars were spent in connection with investments in various 10 enterprises and loans to third parties. The Receiver has recovered certain of these 11 items to date (see Exhibit A) and will continue efforts to do so in a cost-effective 12 manner. However, it is important to note that many of these investments or loans 13 were highly speculative with few cost-effective alternatives for recovery.

14 In previous periods, the investment in BayMedica, a cannabis/pharmaceutical 15 company, was converted into shares and cash in InMed, a publicly traded Canadian 16 pharmaceutical company as part of a sale transaction. Pursuant to the sale terms, the 17 Receiver has recovered over $10,000 in cash and has shares of InMed that are 18 available for sale. Those shares are expected to be sold to complete the recovery on 19 that asset.

20 The Court approved the Receiver's settlement with Illa Designs, LLC ("Illa") 21 a company that made the "Dash Wagon", a startup fitness/maternity product.
22 Pursuant to that agreement, Illa's principals recorded a deed of trust in favor of the 23 receivership estate on their property and placed their home for sale. Based upon the 24 agreement, the receivership estate is now expected to recover $265,000.
25 Additionally, modest interim payments are being made toward that amount. In the 26 third quarter of 2023, the principals of Illa requested permission to cease marketing 27 their property for sale. Instead, they intended to pursue a refinance of the home to 28 pay off the amount due to the Receiver. To accomplish the refinance, the property

1 was removed from the market to comply with lender requirements. The Receiver 2 anticipates a resolution in May of 2024.

3 The Receiver maintains a watchful eye on the investment in Casa del Zorro, a 4 boutique hotel located in Borrego Springs, California. Previous interest by the 5 partnership to purchase the receivership estates interest was muted. A 2022 capital 6 improvement project along with a change in management companies appears to 7 have modestly improved the property's economics and appeal; however, the asset 8 continues to face various challenges. During the fourth quarter 2023, the asset 9 manager announced plans to issue a capital call to cover operational shortfalls and to 10 continue expected capital improvement projects. Existing investors were asked to 11 re-invest at levels commensurate with their current ownership. Consequently, 12 investors who declined to participate in the capital raise will be diluted in their 13 interest. The Receiver declined to participate in the capital call. The partnership 14 group remains interested in buying the receivership estate's interest at a material 15 discount.

16 Other loans/investments appear unlikely to lead to any recovery. The 17 underlying investments are the subject of complex litigation (Trek Partners), a music 18 festival that needed so much additional capital after the initial capital raise that the 19 initial investment value has been diluted to a negligible amount that would not be 20 cost effective to recover (Wonderlust Events, LLC), a liquor distribution investment 21 that never materialized beyond the startup phase (BSV Group, LLC), and an 22 investment in a startup fish based agricultural feed company (Menon Renewable 23 Energy) that has no near-term exit strategy. As appropriate, the Receiver's staff 24 continues to follow-up on these investments, and the others, to determine the 25 prospects for and best approach to securing a recovery, if possible.

26 As previously discussed, the 2Budz Holdings, LLC investment was resolved 27 via an offset to 2Budz Holding's claim against the receivership estate.
28

1 G. Third-Party Claims

2 The receivership estate made significant claims against third parties for the 3 substantial losses suffered by the Receivership Entities and the amounts owed to 4 investors and creditors of the Receivership Entities. The Receiver identified certain 5 third parties who directly or indirectly aided and abetted the principals of the 6 receivership entities in wrongful conduct resulting in tens of millions of dollars of 7 losses.

8 All funds associated with two settlements with third-party professionals - 9 William Adams and Randolph Houts – have been collected as approved by this 10 Court. Dkt. 682 and 925.

11 In December 2021, the Court conditionally approved the Receiver’s request 12 for authority to pursue the receivership estate’s claims against CTC. Dkt. 737.
13 After the Receiver reached a settlement with CTC and various related parties and 14 sought approval thereof, on November 22, 2022, the Court entered its Order 1) 15 Approving Global Settlement and 2) Entering Chicago Title Bar order. Dkt. 927.
16 Three (3) separate parties filed appeals of the CTC bar order and a related bar order 17 in favor of Nossaman, LLP - Ovation Management, Kim Peterson and his funding 18 entities, and CalPrivate Bank (“CalPrivate”). Subsequently, the Receiver entered 19 into a settlement agreement with CalPrivate to resolve its appeal of the order 20 approving the CTC settlement and resolve its disputed claim in the receivership. A 21 joint motion seeking Court approval of the settlement was filed (Dkt. 956) and on 22 April 24, 2023, this settlement was approved by the Court (Dkt. 995). The now 23 Court-approved settlement includes an assignment to the receivership estate of 24 CalPrivate’s claims against Kim Peterson and his entities and trusts. In exchange, 25 CalPrivate received its allocated share of the CTC Global Settlement, along with an 26 additional payment of $500,000, and will receive a portion of the funds recovered 27 by the Receiver from Kim Peterson and his related entities. CalPrivate has 28

1 dismissed its appeal. Peterson and his funding entities initially appealed the order
2 approving the settlement with CalPrivate, but subsequently withdrew the appeal.

3 The Court authorized the Receiver to proceed with claims to recover profits, 4 referral fees, commissions and other amounts paid to profiting investors and other 5 third parties (“Clawback Claims”). Dkt. 551. The Receiver has signed settlement 6 agreements for 87 Clawback Claims. The Clawback Claims that have been filed 7 have been assigned to this Court as related actions. In each of these cases, an ENE
8 with Magistrate Judge Goddard has been held (in some cases, multiple ENE 9 sessions have been held), or a default has been entered against the Clawback 10 Defendants. Most of the Clawback cases have now been resolved through 11 settlement, default judgment (collection of which is underway), or in one instance, a 12 bankruptcy filed by the clawback defendant. Only two (2) active Clawback cases 13 remain. Recently, the Receiver was granted summary judgment as to one of the last 14 three Clawback cases, and recovery therefrom has been completed as of the date of 15 this report.

16 Regarding the Clawback Claim against Kim Peterson and related entities, the 17 Receiver sought and was granted authority by the Court to expand the claims in her 18 complaint to include additional tort claims for additional damages. The Receiver’s 19 First Amended Complaint was filed on May 18, 2022 and the Defendants’ answer 20 was filed on June 27, 2022. A scheduling order was entered by the Court on 21 August 1, 2022, and the Receiver proceeded with discovery. In connection with the 22 Court-approved settlement with CalPrivate, CalPrivate assigned its claims against 23 Peterson and his entities and trusts to the receivership. After the Court issued an 24 Amended Scheduling Order in the Receiver’s pending action against Peterson, the 25 Receiver filed her Second Amended Complaint against Peterson and his entities and 26 trusts on May 5, 2023, adding contract-based claims against one of Peterson’s 27 entities (ANI License Fund) and his irrevocable trust. The Receiver filed a motion 28 for summary judgment, which is fully briefed and pending. On April 16, 2024, one

1 of the Peterson entities, ANI License Fund, LLC, filed a bankruptcy petition. On 2 April 23, 2024, this Court entered an Order Staying Action in the aforementioned 3 clawback case against Peterson. The Receiver plans to file a motion to dismiss the 4 ANI License Fund bankruptcy case, as well as a motion seeking relief from the 5 automatic stay in the event the bankruptcy case is not dismissed.

6 The Receiver has also substituted in as the plaintiff in a state court action filed 7 by CalPrivate against Peterson personally that includes contract-based and tort 8 claims. Peterson recently filed a cross-complaint in the state court case against the 9 Receiver (on behalf of the receivership estate) and Gina Champion-Cain. The 10 Receiver has moved to dismiss the cross-complaint as to all claims against the 11 receivership estate, which motion is pending.

12 A summary of these third-party settlement collections through March 31, 13 2024 is below:

14 Chicago Title Settlement	$23,805,295
15 William Adams Settlement	$703,200
16 Randolph Houts Settlement	$290,000
17 Approximately 87 Clawback settlements	$8,823,385
18 Total collected through 03/31/2024	$33,621,880

19 20 H. Receivership Estate Operations

21 The remaining operations of the Receivership Entities are very limited at this 22 stage. The IT vendor, AMA Networks, continues to monitor the corporate network 23 operations for a minimal monthly charge and responds to requests on an as-needed 24 basis. The remaining general operational work is completed by the Receiver’s staff, 25 as needed. Company servers, remaining personal property and records are held in 26 storage at the Receiver’s San Diego office or in Iron Mountain document storage.

27
 28

1 I. Claims Process & Taxes

2 The Receiver filed her Motion for Order (1) Approving Procedures for the 3 Administration of Claims against the Receiver Estate; (2) Setting Claims Bar Date;
4 and (3) Approving Claims Bar Date Notice and Proof of Claim Forms (Dkt. No.
5 681). That motion was granted by the Court (Dkt. No. 716) on October 14, 2021.
6 Investors and creditors had until December 31, 2021, to submit their claims to the 7 Receiver (the “Claims Bar Date”). The Receiver concluded the process as set forth
8 therein, and on May 31, 2022, filed her Motion for Order: (1) Approving Receiver’s 9 Recommended Treatment of Claims (Allowed, Disallowed, Disputed); (2)
10 Approving Distribution Methodology; and (3) Approving Proposed Distribution 11 Plan (“Claims Allowance and Plan Motion”). Dkt. 807. At the Court’s direction, on 12 May 26, 2022, the Receiver filed a proposed plan for providing notice of the Claims 13 Allowance and Plan Motion, as well as the Settlement Approval Motion, including a 14 proposed briefing schedule for the motions. Dkt. 797. The Court approved the plan 15 for providing notice and held a hearing on the Claims Allowance and Plan Motion 16 on August 31, 2022. Dkt. 812. On February 24, 2023, the Court issued an Order (1)
17 Approving Receiver’s Recommended Treatment of Claims (Allowed, Disallowed 18 Disputed; (2) Approving Distribution Methodology; (3) Approving Proposed 19 Distribution Plan; (4) Granting Leave to File Excess Pages. Dkt. 958.

20 On March 13, 2023, Kim Peterson, Kim Funding, LLC and ABC Funding 21 Strategies, LLC (“Peterson Parties”) filed a notice of appeal of the denial of their 22 claims in the receivership and a motion seeking to stay distributions to investors and 23 creditors from the receivership estate while they pursue their appeal. Dkt. 972, 973.
24 On April 10, 2023, the stay motion was denied, however a temporary stay was 25 granted until April 24, 2023, so the Peterson Parties could seek a further stay from 26 the Ninth Circuit Court of Appeals. Dkt. 987. The Peterson Parties filed an 27 emergency motion with the Ninth Circuit on April 17, 2023. The Receiver opposed 28 the emergency motion, and it was denied by the Ninth Circuit on April 24, 2023.

1 Notwithstanding the Peterson Parties' appeal and stay motions, and pursuant 2 to the approved Distribution Plan, on April 6, 2023, the Receiver filed her Notice of 3 Allowed Claim Adjustments. Dkt 986. Likewise, on April 11, 2023, the Receiver
 4 filed her Notice of Interim Distribution. Dkt 988. Both the Notice of Allowed 5 Claim Adjustments and the Notice of Interim Distribution were posted to her 6 website and emailed (or mailed if no email was available) to the applicable 7 investors. The $21 million² in payments representing the first interim distribution, 8 as approved by the Court, was sent out in May 2023.

9 Regarding the Receivership Entities' tax returns, the Receiver continues to 10 make progress on the tax returns for 70 separate entities. A significant number of 11 prior year returns (2016, 2017 & 2018) had not been completed at the time of the 12 Receiver's appointment. The Receiver will continue to file Receivership Entity tax 13 returns, as necessary, in the most cost-effective and efficient manner possible.

14 J. Receipts and Disbursements

15 The following is a summary of the cash activity in the receivership estate 16 from the inception of the receivership on September 3, 2019 through March 31, 17 2024.

18 Bank Balance at 09/03/2019 ³ (accounts listed in Appointment Order)	$368,614
19 Additional Bank Account Recoveries post-takeover	$1,447,947
20 Chicago Title Funds Received	$11,311,344
21 Total Receipts	$59,745,250
22 Total Disbursements	($20,473,663)
23 Total Distributions	($43,253,603) ⁴
24 Ending Bank Balance at 3/31/2024	$9,145,889

25 ² One check totaling $270.37 was ultimately not negotiated by the creditor.

26 ³ While September 3, 2019 is the date of the Appointment Order, the order was entered late in the afternoon, and the takeover occurred on September 4, 2019, so certain bank activity occurred (including certain September rents and debt service payments) on September 3rd, prior to the freeze order taking effect.

27 ⁴ See the Chicago Title Settlement Distributions and Receivership Estate First Interim Distribution line items in Exhibit B.

1 A more detailed summary of the receipts and disbursements is attached hereto 2 as Exhibit B. As noted above, approximately $43 million has been distributed to 3 investors and creditors with allowed claims, as approved by the Court. An 4 additional $600,000 has also been collected since March 31, 2024.

5 K. Investor/Creditor Communications

6 The Receiver continues to maintain a dedicated website which is being used 7 to provide case information, regular updates, and answers to frequently asked 8 questions to investors and creditors. The website is not intended to duplicate the 9 Court's electronic case filing system for this case, but it is intended to provide 10 investors with important information about the receivership. The Internet address 11 for the website is: www.anireceivership.com. In addition, the Receiver maintains a 12 dedicated e-mail address (ani@ethreadvisors.com) and telephone line for investor 13 and creditor inquiries. The Receiver has had her staff attempt to respond to investor 14 and creditor correspondence to acknowledge receipt of their correspondence (via 15 email and/or phone).

16 The Receiver has provided communications directing all investors and 17 creditors to the receivership website for further notices, information, and updates, 18 and notifies them of the opportunity to subscribe to receive automatic periodic e-19 mail updates with links to reports and other relevant documents filed with the Court.
20 Investors and creditors are reminded of the importance of maintaining current 21 contact information with the Receiver's office to ensure receipt of important 22 information relating to the claims approval process, distributions, and other 23 important updates.

24 IV. CONCLUSION

25 The Receiver's efforts to marshal and recover assets and complete remaining 26 litigation matters are ongoing. The Receiver and her professionals recommend that 27 the receivership continue pursuant to the Appointment Order and supplemental 28

1 orders issued by the Court until such time as remaining litigation matters have been 2 resolved and a final distribution of receivership estate funds has been made.

After taking into consideration brokerage fees, costs of sale, mortgage payoffs and fees, property taxes, potential recovery of other investments/loans, etc., the net sales proceeds from the portfolio reflected on this schedule are (at this time) approximately $16 million. Notably, other Investments/Loans were highly speculative and recovery is expected to be nominal relative to the overall recovery numbers; at least three (3) are expected to produce a recovery nonetheless.
